1. GENERAL

- 1.1. We have a general duty to conduct our business with you honestly, fairly, and professionally and to act in your best interests when opening and closing trades with you.
- 1.2. We may impose certain rules and restrictions on the placing of market orders on Deriv. Such rules may change from time to time according to market conditions and other factors.
- 1.3. We might provide you with written information from time to time by publishing it on our website or in any other way. We make no warranties as to the accuracy of this information. This information shall under no circumstances constitute or contain any investment advice or recommendations from us.
- 1.4. If you use any third-party service provider for trading, it will be your sole responsibility to ensure the safety of your account and any trading that is conducted.
- 1.5. If you are employed in the banking and/or finance sector, you must not conduct trades through babafx unless your employer is aware of your trading and the practice does not contravene your employer's policies.
- 1.6. We reserve the right to place risk limits on your account, which may affect your trading. These limits may not be restricted to instruments and trade types. We may also impose trading volume limits on your account at our sole discretion.
- 1.7. We have the right to suspend our services or terminate or reverse any trade in any circumstances where we, at our sole discretion, decide that prices may not be accurate, or cannot otherwise be determined. These situations include, but are not limited to the following:
 - 1.7.1. When, as a result of political, economic, military, or monetary events (including unusual market volatility or illiquidity) or any circumstances outside our control, responsibility, and power, our continued operation is not reasonably possible without significantly harming our interests
 - 1.7.2. If we determine that a price cannot be calculated for contracts
 - 1.7.3. When any means of communication normally used in determining the price or value of any of the contracts we offer breaks down
 - 1.7.4. When we decide that the price or value of any of the contracts we offer cannot be quickly or accurately determined
 - 1.7.5. When there is an error in trading software or any other IT system
- 1.8. Corporate actions
 - 1.8.1. A corporate action can include but is not limited to assimilation, acquisition, bankruptcy, bonus issue, bonus rights, cash dividend, class action, delisting, de-merger, general announcement, initial public offering (IPO), liquidation, merger, change in par value, scheme of arrangement, stock dividend, stock split, return of capital, and reverse stock split.
 - 1.8.2. One or more of your trades may be affected by a corporate action. In that case, we may take one or more of the following measures:

1.8.2.1. Credit an amount to or debit an amount from your account

1.8.2.2. Restrict your account to prevent you from closing any affected trades until the corporate action is passed

1.9. Manifest errors

1.9.1. If we have reason to believe that you have entered into a trade at a price that does not reflect fair market price or is acquired or sold at an abnormally low level of risk due to an undetected programming error, bug, or glitch in our website software, market data feed, or due to contract pricing latency, data feed error, stray quote, incorrect pricing parameter, manifest miscalculation of prices, or other obvious error (“Manifest errors”), we have the right to cancel or reverse transactions or change the contractual terms of that trade.

1.9.2. To decide if an error is a manifest error or not, we may take into account any relevant information, including the state of the underlying market at the time of the error and any internal error or lack of clarity of any information source or pronouncement. You have a duty to report to us any such problems, errors, or suspected system inadequacies that you may experience. You will not abuse or arbitrage such system problems or errors for profit.

1.9.3. Any amendments to the contractual terms of any executed manifestly erroneous trades shall be reasonable and fair. These amendments may be done without your involvement and may require actions that include, but are not limited to, the following: closing or opening positions, placing or deleting orders, making changes in open positions, and/or deleting trades from trading history.

1.10. Conflicts policy

1.10.1. We aim to establish, maintain, and operate effective organisational and administrative arrangements to ensure that we take all reasonable steps to prevent any conflicts of interest.

1.10.2. Due to the high degree of risk involved, which could result in the loss of your entire investment, we have adequate internal procedures in place to make sure that you are in all cases treated fairly and that the risk of damage to your interests is reduced.

1.10.3. In some of our activities, major conflicts can arise or have arisen. We try to keep a record of activities that might give rise to a conflict of interest. We also have procedures to manage actual or potential conflicts. These include procedures to keep appropriate independence among members of our staff who are involved in potentially conflicting activities. The following are some of the ways we use to uphold such independence:

1.10.3.1. Employing information barriers

1.10.3.2. Physical separation of staff

1.10.3.3. Segregation of duties and responsibilities

1.10.3.4. Maintaining a policy of independence, which requires our staff to act in your best interests and disregard any conflicts of interest when providing you with our services, or in some circumstances to decline to act for you or a potential client in order to avoid conflicts of interest. If you wish to know about the conflicts of interest policy in more detail, email your request to compliance@babafx.com.

2. TRADING PROCEDURES AND ORDERS

- 2.1. We strive to ensure that the market watch is accurate and prices are obtained from several major banks/liquidity providers/exchanges; in case of closure/failure of one or more price provider for any or all CFDs, quotes will be provided which will reflect the Company's beliefs of the current Bid and Ask price for each CFD; we do not guarantee that its prices are the best prices available in the market.
- 2.2. You agree hereunder that the Company's market watch is only an indicator for the current market and any misunderstanding regarding this service must be returned to the Company's Operations data.
- 2.3. Charts for all traded instruments are drawn according to the default spreads and may differ from the prices displayed on the market watch according to your account rank because of differences in mark-ups.
- 2.4. You or those persons he has notified to us in writing as authorized to give instructions (according to clause 7.1) may place Orders via the Company's Online Trading System (by using his account login and password)
- 2.5. We at its discretion have any right to adjust the price(s)/price spreads provided/offered to you, cancel the transactions, delay in price confirmation and/or re-quote the price(s) offered, restrict your access to streaming, instantly tradable quotes by providing manual quotation only, retrieve from your account any historic trading profits provided that we can document that such trading profits have been gained through such abuse of price(s) at any time during the relationship with you, terminate the relationship with you immediately by the way of a written notice.
- 2.6. We will be entitled to rely and act on any Order given by you without any further enquiry, and any Orders will be binding upon the Client where such Order has been placed using his Access Data.
- 2.7. Any Order shall be conclusively deemed to be a valid Order from you to us, if we believe it to be genuine. You are responsible for any loss, claim or expense incurred by us following or attempting to follow any Order.
- 2.8. We shall receive and transmit for execution all Orders given by you strictly in accordance with their terms. We will have no responsibility for checking the accuracy of any Order. Any Order that the Client gives to us constitutes an irrevocable instruction to us to proceed with the Transaction on your behalf.
- 2.9. We will not be obliged to check or have regard to any assumption made or expressed by you as to the effect of any trade or Order on his existing or overall positions. We will not assess your comments that any trade you place is a trade to close all or part of an open position. We will treat all trades as a buy or a sell regardless of whether the trade has the effect of opening a new position or closing an existing one. It is your responsibility to be aware of all your positions at all times.

- 2.10. If you give an Order which puts you in breach of any clause of this Agreement, we may in its absolute discretion fulfil such an Order to the extent it deems appropriate and you will not have any right to cancel any resultant partially filled Order. You will be liable for the breach of this Agreement and remain liable for the settlement of the resultant Transaction in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 2.11. Orders can be placed, executed and (if allowed) changed or removed only within the operating (trading) time and if they are not executed, they shall remain effective through the next trading session (as applicable).
- 2.12. We shall not be obliged to, but may, at its absolute discretion, execute your Orders in respect of any CFD out of normal trading hours as specified in the Contract Specifications for that particular type of CFD.
- 2.13. We may establish cut-off times for instructions or Orders which may be earlier than the times established by the particular Market and/or clearing house involved in any Transaction and you shall have no claims against us arising out of the fact that an Order was not placed by the Client ahead of the cut-off time.
- 2.14. Orders shall be valid in accordance with the type and time of the given Order, as specified. If the time of validity of the order is not specified, it shall be valid for an indefinite period. However, we may delete one or all pending orders if the account Equity reaches zero or less.
- 2.15. The following Orders may be given by you:
- a. OPEN to open a new position;
 - b. CLOSE to close an open position;

 - b. Commodities
 - c. Energies
- 2.19. The following applies in regards to the change or removal of Orders:
- a. Orders cannot be changed or removed if a confirmation is sent or they are executed or being executed.
 - b. If the market price moves close to the values of Take Profit order or Stop Loss Order, or the opening price (for pending orders) of a deferred order within a distance of 5 pips/50 points (we have the right to adjust according to market conditions), no modification or removal of such orders is allowed.
 - c. OPEN orders cannot be removed.
 - d. You have no right to change or remove Limit Orders if the price has reached the level of the Order Execution.
- 2.20. Stop Loss, Take Profit, Buy Limit, Buy Stop, Sell Limit, Sell Stop are executed at the price declared by you on the first market price touch. If the market opens with a gap or a gap occurs during the day (this generally happens after weekends or holidays, upon release of significant macroeconomic data economic or political news, or in the event of Force-Majeure events), Orders (on CFD on currencies and CFD on other underlying assets) are executed as follows:
- a. Limit Orders (take profit/buy limit/ sell limit): orders are executed at stated prices.

- b. Stop Orders (Stop Loss/Buy stop/Sell Stop): orders set for lock positions are executed at best available market prices.
- 2.21. The terms and conditions in the Agreement are subject to a Transaction Size within Normal Market Size for the specified Instrument. We may, at its absolute discretion, change these terms if you wish to make a Transaction larger than Normal Market Size for the specified Instrument.
- 2.22. We have the right to change the Contract Specifications at any time depending on the market situation without prior Written Notice to you. You agree to check the full Contract Specifications of the CFD before placing any Order.
- 2.23. The 1 (one) standard lot size is the measurement unit specified for each CFD. The minimum volume of the transaction is 0.01 Lot. You may change the leverage of your Account by contacting us. We have the right to allow a change to your Account leverage at our own discretion. In addition, we may in its discretion, change your Account Leverage without any prior notice to you.
- 2.24. We may offer upon its discretion standard lots, defined as follows:
Standard lot = 100000 of the base currency.
- 7.24.1. Changes on the leverage for each account will be applied automatically and you will be informed through an internal mail message.
- 7.24.2. Professional accounts will be handled individually and may not follow the above leverage rules.
- 2.25. Utilizing a high level of leverage may extend your trading possibilities and lead to larger gains as well as higher risks; risks might be reduced by following a strict trading strategy at the opening and closure of your transactions. For further information, please contact Customer Support Center.
- 2.26. The level of Swap Rates may vary in size and change depending on the level of interest rates. We reserve the right to change the level of Swap Rates without prior Written Notice to you.
- 2.27. Spread for each Instrument is specified by us in the Contract Specifications. We are entitled to change Spreads without prior Written Notice to you.
- 7.27.1. We offer you competitive spreads on all instruments but may rarely make small increases on some or all instruments; ensuring that it provides the best available market conditions and tightest spreads, since one of our most important objectives is to ensure that your orders are executed at the best market price and that clients get the tightest spreads available.
- 7.27.2. At order execution, we apply its mark-up on the best available market prices according to your account rank.
- 2.28. We allow hedging, which means you are allowed to open positions in the opposite direction of previously opened positions in the trading account, to reduce loss and to decide later when to enter the market.
- 2.29. You acknowledge that Quotes displayed and the market watch on your Trading Terminal are Indicative Quotes.

- 2.30. We provide Quotes by taking into account the underlying asset price, but this does not mean that these Quotes are within any specific percentage of the underlying asset price. When the relevant Underlying Market is closed, the Quotes provided by us will reflect what we think to be the current Bid and Ask price of the relevant underlying asset at that time. You acknowledge that such Quotes will be set by us at its absolute discretion.
- 2.31. Execution on CFD's in currencies (foreign exchange), crypto, metal, futures, indices, energies depending on Market conditions, will take the form of market execution. This means that whenever you agree to buy or sell a CFD in any of those Underlying Assets, We will give you the available price in the market even if your requested price was changed without giving you a re-quote on that entry.
- 2.32. Scalping and Pip- Hunting is not allowed for Classic and Copy Trading accounts, unless we change its policy on this.
- 2.33. In the event that we classify you as a scalper or a pip hunter - which we do not currently allow, we may, at its sole discretion, and without a prior written notice, take one or more of the following actions:
- Terminate this Agreement;
 - Close out all or any of your open positions at current market prices;
 - Debit your Account(s) for the amounts which are due to us;
 - Close any or all of the your Accounts held with us;
 - Combine your Accounts; consolidate the Balances in such Accounts and offset those Balances;
 - Refuse to open new Accounts for you.
- 2.34. Slippage in CFDs in Currencies occurs when a limit order or stop loss occurs at a worse rate than originally set in the order. In this situation, we will execute the trade at the next best price. Slippage in CFDs in stocks often occurs when there is a change in spread. In this situation, a market order placed may get executed at a worse than expected price. In the case of a Long Position, the Ask may have increased, while in the case of a Short Position, the Bid may have lowered.
- 7.34.1. Slippage involves executing any given trade on a specific price different from the expected price sent or preset by the client. This may take place during highly volatile market conditions such (but not limited to) economic or political news; the order will be filled at the next best available market price because, but not limited to - the desired/preset order price is not available, or because higher spread differences are applied in the corresponding exchanges of the traded instrument.
- 7.34.2. We do not apply slippage under normal market conditions, and applies it on stop pending entry or liquidation orders during times when we are closed or when - but not limited to - there is a weekend or bank holiday, international economic events or hectic market movements. In this case, stop orders will be filled on the opening price, which we find suitable.
- 2.35. We and/or any relevant third party may perform maintenance on its servers from time to time which includes shutting down, restarting and/or refreshing the servers to ensure, or procure to ensure the effective and efficient operation of the Software. These actions may cause the Software to be inaccessible and/or inoperative for a period of time, therefore you accept that you will bear no responsibility for any loss, including financial loss and/or loss of opportunity due to maintenance and/or any action or omission of us and/or the third-party software provider.

- 2.36. You accept that at times of excessive transaction flow there might be some delay in contacting, over the telephone, a member of the Dealing Department, especially when there are important market announcements.

3. MARGIN REQUIREMENTS

- 3.1. You shall provide and maintain the Initial Margin and/or Hedged Margin in such limits as we, at its sole discretion, may determine at any time under the Contract Specifications for each type of CFD.
- 3.2. It is your responsibility to ensure that he understands how a Margin is calculated.
- 3.3. We have the right to amend any entry in the Contract Specifications section for each CFD including margin requirements, and these changes may take effect on both new and existing/open positions/trades; which may be declared through an internal mail; unless a Force Majeure Event has occurred.
- 3.4. We have the right to change Margin requirements without prior Written Notice to you in the case of Force Majeure Event. In this situation we have the right to apply new Margin requirements to the new positions and to the positions, which are already open.
- 3.5. If at any time Equity is less than 30% of the Necessary Margin, we have the right to close any or all of your Open Positions without your consent or any prior Written Notice to you. In order to determine if you have breached this clause, any sums referred to therein which are not denominated in the Currency of your Account shall be treated as if they were denominated in the Currency of your Account by converting them into the Currency of your Account at the relevant exchange rate for spot dealings in the foreign exchange market.
- 3.6. You have the responsibility to notify us as soon as you believe that you will be unable to meet a Margin payment when due.
- 3.7. We have no obligation to make Margin Calls for you. We are not liable to you for any failure by us to contact or attempt to contact you.
- 3.8. Where we effect or arranges a Transaction involving an Instrument, you should note that, depending upon the nature of the Transaction, you may be liable to make further payments when the Transaction fails to be completed or upon the earlier settlement or closing out of your position. You may be required to make further variable payments by way of Margin against the purchase price of the Instrument, instead of paying (or receiving) the whole purchase (or sale) price immediately. The movement in the market price of your investment will affect the amount of margin payment you will be required to make. You agree to pay us on demand such sums by way of margin as are required from time to time under the Rules of any relevant Market (if applicable) or as we may in its discretion reasonably require for the purpose of protecting itself against loss or risk of loss on present, future or contemplated Transactions under this Agreement.
- 3.9. Any account on Margin call needs to be cautious of equity as the account will be stopped out by closing all open positions as the equity reaches zero, or 0% equity to margin level; all pending orders for the stopped out account will be deleted, and any deficit that may result after liquidation will be handled and covered by us.

- 3.10. If you breach clause 3.5., we have the right to close partially or totally of your Open Positions in order for the Account to go above the required percentage according to the clause 3.5.
- 3.11. Margin must be paid in cash. Cash Margin is paid to us as an outright transfer of funds. Non-cash collateral Margin will be accepted by us in its discretion and on terms to be agreed with us.
- 3.12. You undertake neither to create nor to have outstanding any security interest whatsoever over, nor to agree to assign or transfer, any of the Margin transferred to us.

4. CONFIRMATIONS

- 4.1. Information on Order(s) status, Client Account status, Trade Confirmations and messaging facility between the Parties will be sent to you either in electronic form by e-mail to the email address which we will have on record and/or provided via its internal mail system of the Online Trading System.
- 4.2. You are obliged to provide us with e-mail address for the purposes of clause 4.1.
